

Library Event

What: Grief: A Dying Issue!

Who: Guest Speaker Joyce Benoit

Where: Library

When: April 11, 2007 - Noon

The word grief tends to conjure up memories of the loss of a loved one.

Join us in learning about grief, how it shows up in our lives and some of the tools that can help in the process of grief. It also relates to other losses such as divorce, a job, or a favorite animal.

Joyce I. Benoit, M.E.d., C.C.A. is a Heart-Centered Psychotherapist and Clinical Aromatherapist and Lecturer for over 20 years. Joyce graduated from Antioch University, Yellow Springs, Ohio. She specializes in treating grief and devotes a portion of her practice to work with the Multiple Sclerosis population.

In addition to her clinical practice, Joyce has lectured around the country to various organizations. Her topics include stress management, anger management, and how to live a better life with Multiple Sclerosis.
