An extraordinary exhibition of color, mood, and motion, barely contained within the frames of this group of 18 prints by Paul Goodnight. Mr. Goodnight is a major figure in African-American art, with works in the private collections of Maya Angelou, Desmond Tutu, Lionel Richie, Wesley Snipes, Samuel L. Jackson, and Isaiah Thomas. His work has been exhibited in the MFA, the Museum of the National Center of African American Artists and the Smithsonian Institution.
