Weaving the Stories of Women’s Lives
February 19 to March 24, 2015
Phyllis Andrade, Marie Peters, Zelayna Rauch, Gayle White

National Women’s History Month Exhibition features invited artists Phyllis Andrade of Quincy, Marie Peters of Pembroke, Zelayna Rauch of Westwood, and Gayle White of Hyde Park. Collectively supporting this theme, the exhibition includes collages, quilts, paintings, hand-made textiles, and several family heirlooms loaned by one of the exhibiting artists.

Reception March 11, Noon to 1:00 PM
Guest Speaker, Karen Herbaugh, Curator, American Textile Museum, Lowell, MA with readings from “Women’s Sewing Diaries”.
Bring your lunch. Light refreshments served. Public Invited.

We are taking this exhibition as an opportunity to jump start our Textile Recycling Program.
Please drop-off your donation to the Akillian Gallery, March 11 - 16

The following items can be recycled in any condition as long as they are dry and odor-free:
• Clothing of all types
• Shoes, boots, flip flops, slippers (including single items)
• Bedding – comforters, bedspreads, sheets, pillows, blankets
• Curtains, draperies, table cloths, placemats, towels
• Purses, duffle bags, totes
• Stuffed animals

Exhibition and Recycling effort is in collaboration with Massasoit’s Women’s Resource Center.